

DIARY NOTES

Acting Executive Director-Comptroller

5 November 1971

During his debriefing of the White House meeting on the Intelligence Community, General Cushman stated that a discussion arose there about the need for better people to produce better intelligence, not merely make organizational changes (Mr. Packard). After some discussion, Dr. Kissinger asked for a report in two weeks from all the Agencies as to how this was to be achieved.

WEC

WEC:ji

25X1

Approved For Release 2005/11/23 : CIA-RDP80M01048A001500010006-1

Next 4 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2005/11/23 : CIA-RDP80M01048A001500010006-1